PRINCETON MAY PLAY PENNSYLVANIA ON NOV. 25.

Football Relations Between the Old Rivals to Be Renewed—Julius Fleischmann With Corrigan—Boxing in Brooklyn—Green B. Morris's Entries Rejected.

There are further indications that a football game between Princeton and the University of Pennsylvania will be played at Franklin Field, Philadelphia, next fall. The manager of the Princeton eleven has held another conference with the Quaker officials, and it is now said that the game will take place on Saturday, Nov. 25, in which event the Carlisle Indians will be dropped from Pennsylvania's schedule. If Princeton should prefer Thanksgiving Day, the Quakers will agree to give up that date and play on Nov. 25. Princeton-Pennsylvania game would mean not only additional profits for both universities, but it would also do much toward clearing up the championship question, inasmuch as Princeton will play Yale as usual, while Harvard will meet both Yale and Pennsylvania. Princeton and Pennsylvania are natural football rivals from a geographical point of view. The games played by them in the football season are always red letter events and created wide-spread interest.

In the last two years old scores have been freed and today it may be said that the fiercest feelings exist between Princeton and Harvard. Princeton has had only one "big game" since the breach occurred, that with Yale, and as a result the Princeton football officials have not been filled with as much glow as those at other Eastern universities. Pennsylvania has been eager as to the eligibility of its football men in recent years, and for that reason Princeton, it is felt, has forgotten the past and is ready to renew former relations. If the game is arranged college men will be well pleased, for both the Tigers and Quakers know how to play football. Princeton-Pennsylvania game will be played in Philadelphia this year, either on Nov. 4 or a week later. Columbia's game with the Quakers in this city will take place either before or after the Harvard game.

Edward Corrigan and his friends will formally inaugurate the new turf body which will fight the Western Jockey Club. At the request of August Belmont, Capt. S. S. Brown will recommend to Corrigan that a name American Jockey Club be dropped, because of the fact that this was the name of the historic organization that conducted racing at Jerome Park in the old days. Instead of this the new body may use the name of the American Turf Club, or something similar. Corrigan has been formerly pointed by Julius Fleischmann, manager of Cincinnati, that the latter has a second mortgage on the property of the American Jockey Club, and that the latter is a member of the American Jockey Club. Corrigan, together with S. S. Brown and T. McDowell, who will be the president of the organization, have decided to drop the name of the American Jockey Club, and to use the name of the American Turf Club, or something similar. Corrigan has been formerly pointed by Julius Fleischmann, manager of Cincinnati, that the latter has a second mortgage on the property of the American Jockey Club, and that the latter is a member of the American Jockey Club.

S. Dickson, the jockey who will ride for W. K. Vanderbilt in France this year, gave a remarkable exhibition of race riding and endurance at the Jockey Club. He was when, after riding three winners, and in two races outdistancing the famous "Hindhead," he staggered and fell. He was then taken to the hospital, and it was feared that he would be unable to continue his career. He was, however, recovered, and is now suffering from a high fever, his temperature being 101.

The entries of Green B. Morris in all stakes to be decided in the East this year have been rejected by the Jockey Club. Morris had entered for a $100,000 stake in the Washington race, and for a $100,000 stake in the Washington race. The Jockey Club has rejected his entries, and he has been notified that he must withdraw his entries. Morris has been notified that he must withdraw his entries.

There is something in the atmosphere at New Orleans that keeps rival turfmen at loggerheads. L. Hayman and Fred Cook, who recently indulged in a rough and tumble scrap, with the result that Cook was arrested, were pulled apart again on Thursday night. The two men, who are both well known in the turf world, were pulled apart by a crowd of men, and the result was a serious injury to Cook.

Racing at Hot Springs was again postponed yesterday because of a frozen track. The race was scheduled for yesterday, but the track was so frozen that it was impossible to hold the race. The race was postponed until tomorrow, if the track is not frozen.

Boxing enthusiasts in Brooklyn were jubilant yesterday because of a decision rendered by the referee in the fight between Capt. Evans and the fourth round. The referee decided that Evans was the winner, and the result was a great triumph for Evans. The fight was a very close one, and the referee's decision was a surprise to many of the spectators.

The members of the club pay an initiation fee and regular dues and the club has never been molested, as the strict letter of the law, in the opinion of the referee, has been violated. District Attorney Jerome, who recently saw some boys similarly conducted at a downtown athletic club, said that he was to violation of the law. In view of the fact that the club is a private club, it is probable that boxing will enjoy a boom on the other side of the bridge, if only on a small scale.

The New York representative of the National Sporting Club of London received a cable message from the club, stating that the club had decided to hold a tournament in London, and that the club had decided to hold a tournament in London. The club had decided to hold a tournament in London, and the club had decided to hold a tournament in London.

A novel plan to boom racing between power boats has been devised by the Eastern Yacht Club. That organization will this summer have a restricted class of motor boats, the idea being to encourage yachting and to build boats which will combine speed, comfort and durability. These boats are not to be more than 22 feet long, including the propeller, but not including the rudder or rudder stock. The greatest beam at the water line must not be more than 4 feet 6 inches, and this measurement must be taken with the equipment and 300 pounds dead weight on board placed amidships and the two tanks empty. Each boat when racing must carry one anchor weighing not less than twenty-five pounds, a cable not less than an inch and a half in circumference for a length of thirty feet, a lead line of at least thirty feet, a pair of oars at least 8 feet long and rowlocks, one serviceable life preserver for each person on board, side lights and headlamps, as required by law, one fog horn and one bell, and one pair of life preservers for each person on board. The equipment, 300 pounds dead weight and with tanks empty is not to be less than 1,800 pounds.

The horse power is to be calculated by the area of the cylinder. In four-cylinder engines this area is to be 85 square inches (the diameter of four cylinders 5 1/2 inches in diameter or in two-cylinder engines the diameter must be 41.9 square inches. These areas may be exceeded by not more than 2 per cent. Each boat is to be equipped with reversing gear or reversible propeller.

Atell Gains Decision Over Feliz. Baltimore, Feb. 3.—Abe Atell of California and Tommy Feliz of Brooklyn fought a fast fifteen-round bout at the Eureka A. C. last night. The decision was given to Atell on points. Until the tenth round it was a very even fight, but after that Feliz began to wobble, and Atell simply pushed him at will, but could not knock him out.

SONG AND WINE'S EASY WIN.

EASTERN COLT DISPOSES OF TERN'S ROD AT NEW ORLEANS.

Judges Overlook Novetta and Place Gravy Second to Exclamation—Andrey Takes Two-Year-Old Event From Reuben—Crescent and Exciting Races.

New Orleans, Feb. 3.—Song and Wine, who was one of the best colts in the East last summer, took the purse in the fourth race, at six furlongs, at the Fair Grounds today. Song and Wine was made an odds on choice and was well played. Outside of a display of temper at the post, Song and Wine did what was expected of him. He simply toyed with his field and won easily by a length from Tern's Rod. The latter, although off not too well, closed stoutly and secured the place for the first time.

The racing was interesting, the finishes were close and the winners all heavily played. The course was in good shape and a large crowd was out to witness the sport. In the third race, a colt named Reuben, who was a favorite of the crowd, was defeated by a colt named Gravy. Gravy was a colt of the year, and he was a favorite of the crowd. Gravy was a colt of the year, and he was a favorite of the crowd.

There was a long delay in the fifth race, for two-year-olds. In speaking of the secretary's report, the judges declared of and a new book made on account of Reuben's running away a mile and a half. Fanny was the opening favorite, but under a steady shower of rain the latter went to the post first choice and managed to win by a head on the post from Mezzo, who was practically left.

CHALLENGE FOR DAVIS TROPHY.

National Lawn Tennis Association Votes to Send Team to England.

By almost a unanimous vote the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, at its annual meeting, held last night at the Waldorf-Astoria, decided to send a challenge for the Davis international trophy, at present held by England. The meeting brought out the usual attendance, and after the formal business had been completed President Dwight brought up the subject of a challenge.

"It was a great disappointment to us all not to send a challenge last year," he said. "The matter was gone into very thoroughly by the executive committee and its decision to send no team was only reached after viewing the matter from all sides. As the committee was not sure of a representative team, it was finally decided to let the matter pass until another year. The question is not before us again, however, and as the terms of the competition require the challenge to reach the champion nation by the first Monday in March, some action must be taken before long."

"I move that a challenge be sent at once," said F. G. Anderson of the Kings County Tennis Club. The motion was quickly seconded. An amendment to this motion, instructing the association to send a challenge on or before the first Monday of March, and thus leaving the formal challenge to the last moment, was lost by a small vote.

Discussion on the motion showed strong sentiment in its favor. In speaking of the secretary's report, the judges declared of and a new book made on account of Reuben's running away a mile and a half. Fanny was the opening favorite, but under a steady shower of rain the latter went to the post first choice and managed to win by a head on the post from Mezzo, who was practically left.
